

A brief report on ‘Awareness Training Program on ‘Protection of Farmer’s Rights’

The ICAR-National Research Centre for Grapes, Pune organized an awareness training program on ‘Protection of Farmer’s Rights’ on 25th May 2022 at Krishi Vigyan Kendra, Narayangaon, Junnar, Pune. The training was conducted by Institute Technology Management Unit of ICAR NRC Grapes, Pune with the objective to create awareness among farmers. Total fifty number of farmers participated in this awareness program. The program began with ICAR song. Dr. R.G. Somkuwar, Director, ICAR NRC Grapes, Pune delivered talk on ‘Present status of grape cultivation and future scope’, he also spoke about the importance of registration and registration of new varieties by innovative grape farmers and how this has benefitted them commercially. A lecture to create awareness about Biological Diversity Act, National Biodiversity Authority was delivered by Smt. Kavita Mundankar, Scientist, ICAR NRC Grapes, Pune. She explained the importance and various provisions of this Act to the farmers. Dr. Roshni Samarth, Senior Scientist, delivered lecture on PPV&FRA and variety registration. She explained the importance and procedure of registration.

