

Report on SCSP training Program July-Aug, 2024

Training Program on “Good agricultural practices for ginger, soybean, cotton, and grapes to SCSP beneficiaries of Ranjankhol” at KVK, Babhaleshwar, Taluka: Rahta District: Ahmednagar.

ICAR–NRCG, Pune had organized training program on “good agricultural practices for ginger, soybean, cotton, and grapes to SCSP beneficiaries of Ranjankhol” at KVK, Babhaleshwar, Taluka: Rahta District: Ahmednagar on 26th July, 2024 which was coordinated by Dr. S. K. Holkar, Sr. Scientist (Plant Pathology), ICAR-NRCG, Pune. Initially, Dr. Holkar, Nodal officer of the SCSP program, delivered welcome address to the farmers of Ranjankhol and provided the information about the SCSP program. In this training program a total of four deliberations were made viz., on water and nutrient management, diseases and pest management and other good agricultural practices for enhanced yield of soybean, cotton, ginger, and grapes. Dr. Shailesh Deshmukh, Senior Scientist and In-charge Head, KVK, Babhaleshwar delivered a lecture on water and nutrient management in soybean, cotton, and ginger crops. Dr. Dawange, SMS, KVK, Babhaleshwar, delivered a lecture on diseases and pest management on cotton, soybean and ginger. Dr. Vilas Ghule, SMS, KVK, Babhaleshwar delivered his talk on good package of practices for ginger for enhanced production. Dr. S. K. Holkar, delivered his lecture on integrated disease management in grapes. A total of 32 SCSP beneficiaries of Ranjankhol village taluka Rahta district Ahmednagar actively participated and interacted in this one-day training program. Mr. Krushna abhang, a village representative, expressed his feedback on the various benefits of this schemes to the SC farmers and this training program for enhancing their production and livelihood. Dr. Kaushik Banerjee, Director, ICAR-NRCG, Pune provided invaluable support in organizing this training program.

Training Program on “Good agricultural practices for soybean, cotton, and grapes to SCSP beneficiaries of Nandapur and Kadwanchi” at Nandapur, Taluka and District: Jalna.

ICAR–NRCG, Pune had organized training program on “Good agricultural practices for soybean, cotton, and grapes to SCSP beneficiaries of Nandapur and Kadwanchi” at Nandapur, Taluka and District: Jalna on 02nd August, 2024 which was coordinated by Dr. S. K. Holkar, Sr. Scientist (Plant Pathology), ICAR-NRCG, Pune. Initially, Dr. Holkar, Nodal officer of the SCSP program, delivered welcome address to the farmers of Ranjankhol and provided the information about the SCSP program. In this training program a total of four deliberations were made viz., water and nutrient management, diseases and pest management and other good agricultural practices for enhanced yield of soybean, cotton, and grapes. Dr. Mr. Rahul Chaudhari, SMS (Soil Science), KVK, Kharpudi, Jalna delivered a lecture on water and nutrient management in soybean and cotton crops. Dr. Ajay Mitkari, SMS (Plant Protection), KVK, Kharpudi, Jalna delivered a lecture on diseases and pest management in cotton and soybean crops. Dr. R. G. Somkuwar, Pr. Scientist (Fruit Science) delivered his talk on canopy management practices for enhanced and quality grape production. Dr. S. K. Holkar, delivered his lecture on integrated disease management in grapes. A total of 112 SCSP beneficiaries of Nandapur and Kadwanchi villages of Jalna district participated and interacted in this training program. Mr. Bhimrao Kharat, a village representative, expressed his feedback on the various benefits of this schemes to the SC farmers and this training program for enhancing their production and livelihood in general. Dr. Kaushik Banerjee, Director, ICAR-NRCG, Pune provided invaluable support in organizing this training program.

Felicitation to the soybean grower for achieving highest yield during 2023 crop season