

Training on “Package of practices for successful viticulture” under SCSP Project” organized by ICAR-National Research Centre for Grapes, Pune.

The centre organized a training programme on ‘Package of practices for successful viticulture’ under SCSP on 22nd Sept, 2022. A total of 21 farmers from village Nandapur, Dist. Jalna participated in event. Dr. Anuradha Upadhyay I/C Director, ICAR-NRCG, Pune warmly welcomed the beneficiaries and delivered her views regarding the training and the importance of scheme in her opening remarks.

Dr.S.D Ramteke, ICAR- NRCG, Pune in his lecture highlighted PGR issues and use of PGR in grapes after fruit pruning. Dr. A. K. Upadhyay, Principal Scientist, ICAR- NRCG, Pune in his remark highlighted on “Irrigation and nutrient management in vineyard”. He briefed about nutrient deficiency and its effect on grapevine. Dr. A.K. Sharma, Principal Scientist, ICAR-NRCG, Pune delivered his lecture on post-harvest strategies and marketing strategies regarding raisins and table grapes. Dr. Prashant Nikumbhe, Scientist, ICAR- NRCG, Pune briefed on ‘canopy management in grapes after fruit pruning’. Dr. D. S. Yadav, Senior Scientist, ICAR-NRCG, Pune informed regarding the “Integrated pest management in grapevine” with special emphasis on borers, mealy bug and flea beetle management. He gave information on drone technology in grapes.

Dr.R.G. Somkuwar, Director, ICAR-NRCG Pune, in his final remark also highlighted on importance of scheme

Dr. Sujoy Saha, Principal Scientist & Programme coordinator, ICAR-NRCG, Pune discussed about disease management and concluded the programme with vote of thanks.

