

Training on “Vineyard Management after Fruit Pruning” under SCSP Project organized by ICAR-National Research Centre for Grapes, Pune.

The centre organized a training programme on ‘Vineyard management after fruit pruning’ under SCSP on 30th Sept, 2021. A total of 22 farmers from village Kadwanchi, Dist. Jalna participated in event. Dr. R. G. Somkuwar Director, ICAR-NRCG, Pune warmly welcome the beneficiaries and delivered his views regarding “Canopy management after fruit pruning” in his opening remarks.

Dr. A. K. Upadhyay, Principal Scientist, ICAR- NRCG, Pune in his remark highlighted on “Irrigation and nutrient management in vineyard”. He briefed about nutrient deficiency and its effect on grapevine.

Dr. D. S. Yadav, Senior Scientist, ICAR-NRCG, Pune informed regarding the “Integrated pest management in grapevine” with special emphasis on borer and thrips management.

Dr. Sujoy Saha, Principal Scientist ICAR-NRCG, Pune delivered a lecture on “Disease management in vineyard after fruit pruning”. He highlighted on major diseases of grapevines and its bio-intensive management after fruit pruning. Trainees visited vineyard and were updated on varieties released by the centre.

